POSTPARTUM DOULA TRAINING · FOUNDING COHORT

Train with Joy Birth and Be Ready to Support Families.

Joy Birth's postpartum training is for doulas who want more than classroom hours — guided practice, mentorship through first client work, and tools you can use the day you graduate. Enrolling now for January 8–10, 2027.

Jan 8–10, 2027 · 9am–3pm · Denver metro · Enrolling today

Mandy Gonzales, CD — Joy Birth Doula

Why train with Joy Birth

With seven years supporting families through birth and postpartum —and two years as a certified birth trainer—I've learned that birth is only the beginning. Through compassionate, culturally responsive, evidence-based care, postpartum doulas help families build confidence, connection, and lasting support. Train with Joy Birth to provide care that goes beyond six or twelve weeks.

- Step into first postpartum shifts with clarity, not guesswork
- Practice with real families with mentorship — not alone after a weekend workshop
- Leave with contracts, intake forms, and resource guides ready for your practice
- Recoup your training fee with 1–2 clients

What's included

- 18 hours in-person core instruction
- 15 hours guided practical field experience
- 3 Zoom mentorships during field hours, plus continued mentorship
- Lifetime portal access to templates and client tools
- Once your postpartum doula trainer, always your doula trainer
- Certificate of Completion
